FILM REVIEW
THE LION, THE WITCH, AND THE WARDROBE

(2 hours and 23 minutes)

Opposite the closet, there is a country which nobody has seen, called NARNIA, robbed of spring by the white witch. The four children — the oldest boy named Peter, the kind girl named Susan, the curious boy named Edmund, and the pure and reliable girl named Lucy — will fight to save NARNIA.

I like Susan's character best in this movie. She has a very kind heart. She helps Peter, she looks after Lucy, she cheers Edmund.

And Aslan is very splendid. He has a very clever brain. He is a lion, but he is so cool.

This movie is very wonderful. I was impressed after I watched this because everyone helps each other. I want to watch the next movie early.

This movie was made in New Zealand! It is the first 'NARNIA' movie. The second NARNIA movie will be "Prince Caspian". Maybe you can see it next year!

📖 LEARN NEW ENGLISH!

You should know most of the words that you have read in this copy of HIGH LIGHTS but here are some that you may not know:

MOUSSAKA — Food from Greece. It is made from potatoes, meat, and eggplant

MOTTO — Some words that you think say something important about your life

KOALA — one of these:

EMU — a very big bird that you can find in Australia (it may be bigger than you are!)

AAAGH! - a sound that you make when you are being attacked by a tiger

What do you have to do?

Write a KNOCK-KNOCK joke on a piece of paper, and then put the piece of paper in the HIGH LIGHTS box (the HIGH LIGHTS box is inside the English Department, next to the door)

Do you know what a knock-knock joke is? It is a short joke where somebody is knocking on a door and the person inside asks "Who is there?". When the person outside the door gives them an answer, they make a joke with their name. FOR EXAMPLE:

The person outside the door is saying MERRY Christmas but is using the name 'Mary' instead of the word 'merry'. Here are some more examples:

Knock knock.	Knock knock.	Knock knock.
Who's there?	Who's there?	Who's there?
Anna.	Luke.	Anita.
Anna who?	Luke who?	Anita who?
Anna body at home?	Luke at that cute girl.	Anita drink of water.
(Anybody at home*)*	(Look at that cute girl*)*	(I need a drink of water*)*

So look for some Knock-Knock jokes, or think of your own, then put your piece of paper in the HIGH LIGHTS box — and maybe you can get a free DVD! (You do not need to draw a picture for the joke, just write the words!) Don't forget to write your NAME and CLASS on the paper.
